The Loyd DeLap Law Library is a small public law library located in southern Oregon.

I read the article "No Judge, No Jury, Just Cheap Justice" published in the November 1995 issue of The Oregon Defense Attorney. The Solomon Project creates intriguing thought. I would be interested in learning more about it. Can you provide more information concerning the project or perhaps provide a diskette sample demonstration.

As was stated early we are a small library, i.e. with a minimal to close to non-existent budget. While we would be unable to assist you in any financial way we would like to hear from you. In Oregon we tend to lose those who cannot afford lawyers or understand legality to common law. Civil law is of particular interest.

Sincerely,

Linda Bauman
Law Librarian
